

Why Meng Wanzhou Must Be Released NOW! | Sept 22.

A Special On-Line Panel Coming Wednesday!

Why Attend?

Whomever forms the next Government of Canada will have to deal with Justin Trudeau's gigantic mistake of arresting Meng Wanzhou, CFO of Huawei Technologies, at the behest of former US President Donald Trump.

Hear expert panelists explain the many reasons why Meng should (and can legally be) released now in order to restore friendly relations with China, and to set a new and independent course in foreign policy.

Event Info:

Wednesday,
September 22

7:00 p.m. EDT

Register on Zoom
at:

[bit.ly/
RELEASEMENGNOW](https://bit.ly/RELEASEMENGNOW)

Our Sponsors:

- Hamilton Coalition to Stop the War | Canadian Peace Congress | World Beyond War (CAN) | Canada-China Council for Cooperation and Development (CCCCD) | Canadian Foreign Policy Institute | Just Peace Advocates | New Cold War | Mobilization Against War and Occupation | Friends of Socialist China | No Cold War | International Action Centre | Popular Resistance (USA)
- Media Sponsor: The Canada Files

At 7 pm EDT on Sept. 22, see our Distinguished Panelists:

John Philpot

John Philpot is a Canadian criminal defense attorney and expert in International Criminal Law. He has thirty-five years' experience as a lawyer, activist, and speaker in the international peace movement in Canada, Latin America, Africa, and the Middle East.

Julie Tang

Retired Judge Julie Tang was born and raised in HK and emigrated to the US in 1967. Upon retirement, Judge Tang co-founded 2 peace organizations, the "Comfort Women" Justice Coalition, and "Pivot to Peace" which promotes peace and cooperation between the US and China.

Stephen Gowans

Stephen Gowans is an Ottawa-based author of three books: Washington's Long War on Syria; Patriots, Traitors and Empires: The Story of Korea's Fight for Freedom; and Israel, a Beachhead in the Middle East. He blogs at What's Left.