

THE STRUGGLE FOR PEACE AND A JUST WORLD ORDER - Geopolitics of the War in Ukraine, NATO, the Arctic and BRICS

Tamara Lorincz discusses her experience at the Eurasian Women's Forum, the BRICS Women's Meeting and the Baltic Sea & Arctic Peace and Nature Conference in Saint Petersburg, Russia, where she gave several presentations. She spoke at MGIMO University in Moscow, and had meetings with the Institute for US/CAN Studies among others. Tamara was in Russia for two weeks and talked with many people about the war in Ukraine, NATO and BRICS. She will share what she learned and her ideas for building peace and creating a more just world order.

Hear Tamara in Hamilton, Tues, October 22, 2024, at 7pm. Solidarity Place, 51 Adair Ave. (at Queenston Road), Hamilton, L8H 1B5.

Free admission. Donations accepted. | Tamara will also promote the COUNTER SUMMIT to NATO's Parliamentary Assembly in Montreal on November 22, 2024. E-mail hcsww@cogeco.ca to travel with us to this weekend of protest and teach-ins.
